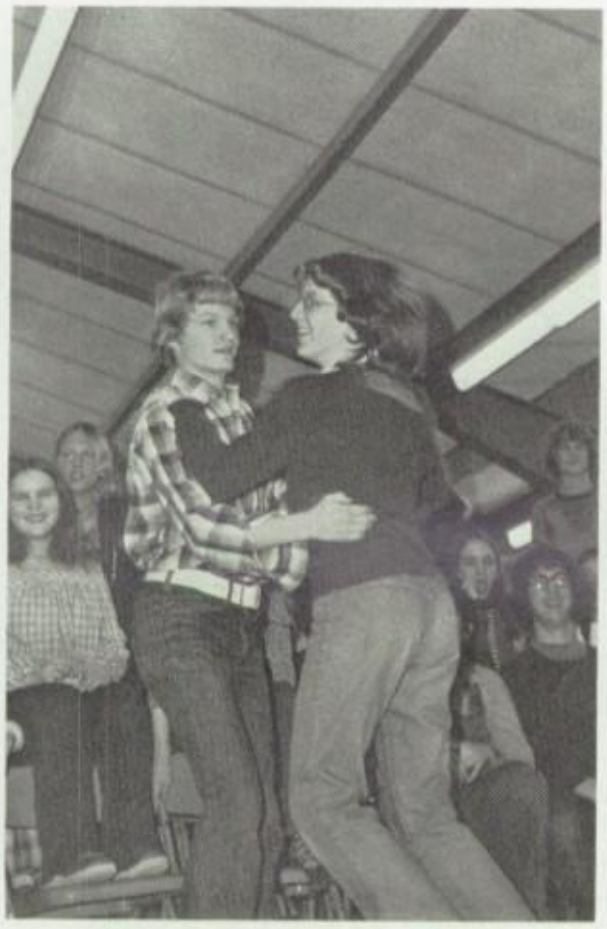
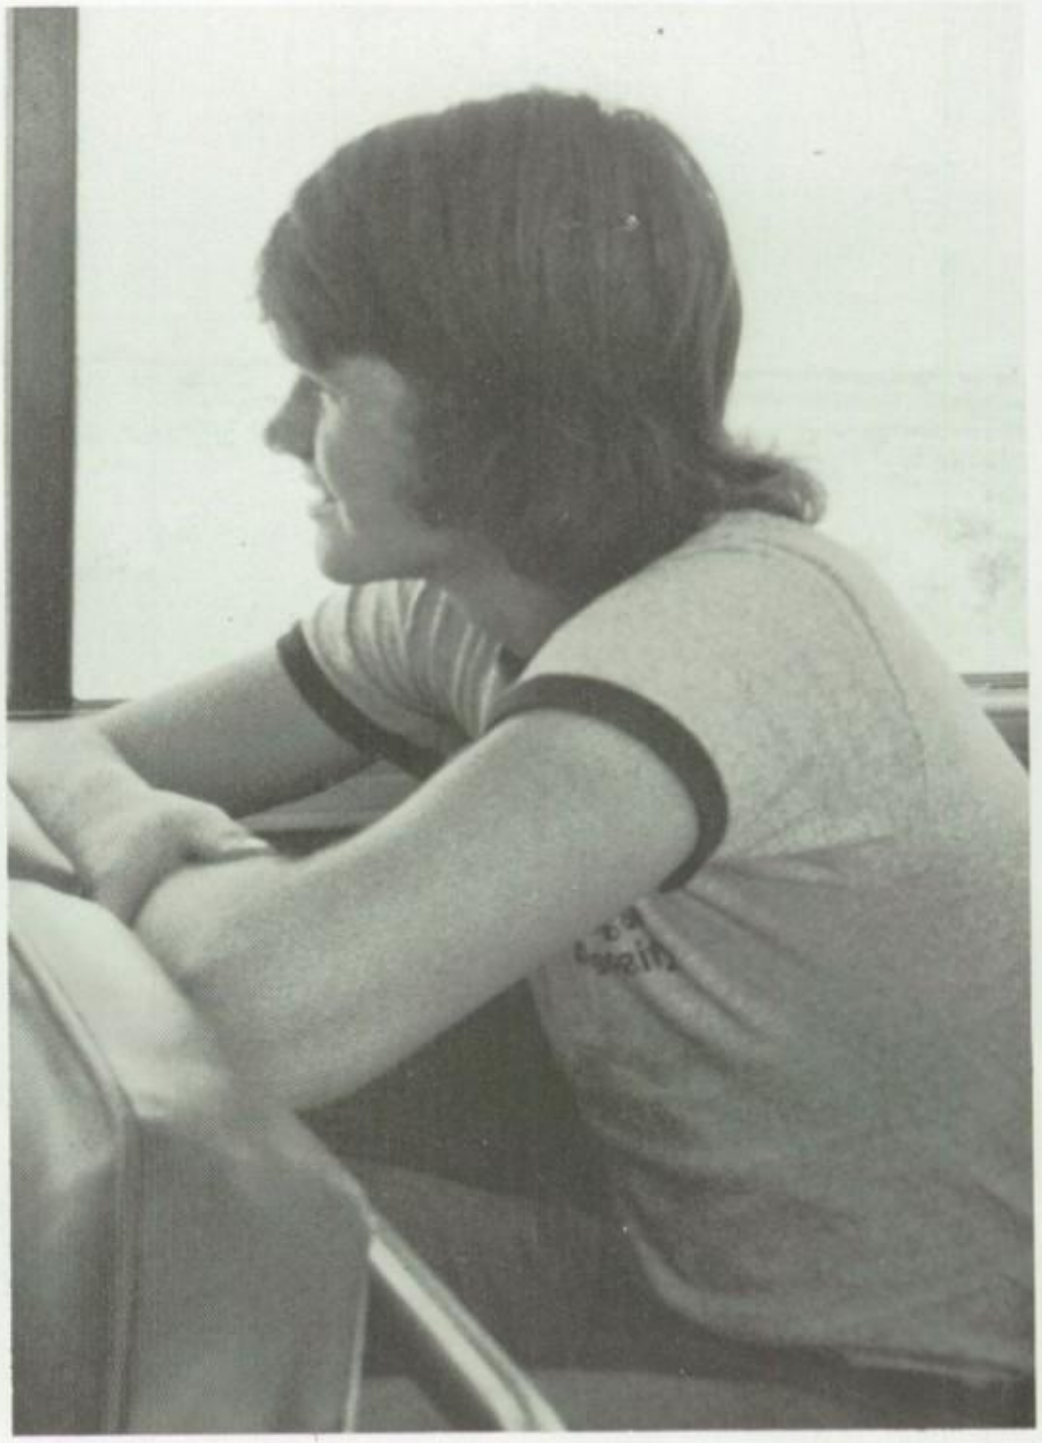
SNOW



CARNIVAL

KEVIN



His life was worth so much
His every word, his every touch.
He tried to live his life to his greatest extent,
But one sad day his dream was bent.
No more laughter was heard from him;

Every light was so very dim.
But, now in the lightest place of all,
He finally answered the Dear Lord's call.
For now in the place they call Heaven
Is a real swell guy--Our Friend Kevin.

Kim Sweeney

How does one explain a death
That seems to have no reason?
In Kevin's case was it the stars
Or maybe just the season?

I don't see how God could think
That Kevin's life was through.
And I don't mean eternal life
I mean here with me and you.

He had so much to offer
So much to see and do.
Why didn't God let Kevin stay
Till eighty years were through?

But now it is a waste of time
To plead with God above.
For Kevin's gone, but with him
He has taken all our love.

And in return he left for us
A treasure full of gold.
He left us with his memory
That's ours to always hold.

Page 1

Remember dissecting those fun little Head animals in Biology. Or when we looked like dorks out in the gym during the Assembly. That was fun. I really enjoyed it when I could walk around and you could walk on the floor. Remember when Anne's dumb and I was full of something about the ornaments the Christmas tree dropped because the bulbs were heavy. Don't forget those fun times.
